

Hi, I like the plan, nice to see so many aspects of community together. I would like to include loosening of Building Codes for rural and community areas and/or including of Earthships, which often include water reusing and cleaning ecosystems, and tiny homes as carbon neutral sustainable dwellings and use natural materials like hempcrete, strawbale and others, as well as use of used tyres and other material as upcycling. Thank you, Michal Masar