

Clara Parking has become hazard and the Community Council wishes to make a submission to have parking improvements cemented into the Plan. Another area of concern is the Clara Bog. While it is great to see the activity on the Bog further parking in the area is required, to ensure safety and development.

