

Clara's parking requires immediate attention, as does the traffic flow around the town. it is an issue that could be resolved with planning and doesn't require a massive spend

